Chios.com came as a labor of love and it was made to serve as a communication bridge for Chians all over the world.

At the same time, it is a complete and nice informative guide for those who are interested in our island or wish to visit it. Aside from the historical, geographical and folkloric elements you will also find high quality services.

Through chios.com someone can attempt a visit to Chios island of Greece and travel around the picturesque villages and the beautiful, sun-drenched coastlines.

Chios is a hospitable island and his residents are polite and peaceful, ready to welcome with love and kindness every new visitor.

We recommend you some carefully selected tourist services and we propose to you:

- The best places that you can visit (e.g. villages, beaches, museums, monasteries),
- The best and comfortable places to stay (hotels, apartments, rooms to let),
In the island there are many beautiful and clean sandy and pebbly beaches where you can enjoy your bath with your family and friends or by yourself in a more isolated coast.

Moreover, there are many good places to visit, villages with historic monasteries, castles and, many other opportunities. Those who like sports can go sailing or climbing. Especially in the summertime the weather is often windy and under these circumstances you can find your self in one of the islands' beaches and do sailing and wind-surfing.

At the end of the day you can have a good time in the nightclubs, restaurants and cafeterias of the island, enjoying your drink with music and good company. All this is made with love and enthusiasm by a team of young people, that are residents of island, but also by others, who had visited Chios.

We are concerned about the island, where, according to traditions, Homer the famous poet used to teach his epics at the beautiful seaside area of Daskalopetra, up on the homonymous rock (Homer's stone). All together we have worked to offer you, who are interested in Chios and those who want to visit it, a complete and elegant informative guide. You are welcome and we wish you to have a nice time and good memories from your vacations in Chios.

The Chios.com team